

“In the new EU mandate, how can we combine social policy and the competitiveness of EU companies?”

European Parliament, Members’ Salon

hosted by Marie-Pierre Vedrenne (Renew, France)

13th November 2024

PROGRAMME

12:00 – 12:10 Welcome:
MEP Marie-Pierre Vedrenne, Renew
Delphine Rudelli, Director General of Ceemet

12:10 – 12:45 How to provide a highly skilled workforce to foster competitiveness and innovation?

Incl. a discussion on the Commission’s initiatives to improve the quality of traineeships in the EU

Moderator: Isabel Sobrino Mate, Senior Policy Advisor, Ceemet

- Marie-Pierre Vedrenne - MEP
- EU Commission – Manuela Geleng, Director for Skills at the Directorate-General for Employment, Social Affairs and Inclusion (tbc)
- Ceemet member – Leena Pöntynen, Director of Skills and Competence – Technology Industries of Finland, TIF (tbc)

Q&A

12:45 – 13:20 How to move towards totally frictionless labour mobility on the EU labour market?

Incl. a discussion on the revision of Regulation 883/04 on social security coordination

Moderator: Delphine Rudelli, Director General, Ceemet

- Marie Pierre Vedrenne - MEP
- Stefan Solle - Head of International Relations and Brussels Office, Gesamtmetall - Ceemet member
- EU Commission – Jörg Tagger - Directorate-General for Employment, Social Affairs and Inclusion (tbc)

13:20 – 13:30

Closing remarks:

MEP Marie-Pierre Vedrenne, Renew
Delphine Rudelli, Director General of Ceemet